The library offers multiple reading rooms with 360
seats.

The library's main mission is to provide the collections necessary to support the teaching and research needs of the School of Law, the School of Economics and the IAE School of Management.

As such, it offers a wide range
of collections in law, political sciences,
economics, management, accounting,
social sciences, as well as books dedicated to the preparation of Law and Administration exams.

COLLECTIONS

The library's collections comprise :

- ▶ printed resources: 83000 books (+3000 per year), 1500 journals (100 active subscriptions);
- ▶ digital resources (journals, e-book, databases, theses) aimed at an academic audience : Business source complete, Cairn.info, Dalloz.fr, DoctrinalPlus, eBook Business Collection, Emerald 120, Europresse, JSTOR, Lamyline, Lexbase, Lexis 360, Lextenso, Navis, ScholarVox, ScienceDirect, StradaLex.
- ▶ digital resources published by various bodies of the European Union and accessible via the Centre for European documentation, housed within the library;
- ▶ DVDs and comics.

Most of our digital resources are freely accessible on the library's computers without user authentication. A few publishers may nevertheless impose restrictions on users who are not part of UCA.

Members of the University community have remote access to digital resources (ENT login and password).

DIGITAL THESIS SUBMISSION

A digital copy of every thesis submitted to the Ecole doctorale Sciences économiques, juridiques, politiques et de gestion must be deposited to the library. This submission is a legal requirement.
