Services

Working at the library and using resources on site
No registration is needed to access the reading rooms and use the collections on site.

Loan
Registration is required to borrow documents. If the document you request is on loan, you can reserve it from your online account.

Research Help
If you need help finding resources or using the library’s services, the library staff is at your service.

Printing / Copying
Your UCA card allows you to use photocopying/scanning/printing services at the library.

Interlibrary Loan

You can request any document (book, article, thesis) from another French or foreign university library through the interlibrary loan (PEB) service, if the documents you request are not available in the UCA libraries. Submit your request online (https://bu.uca.fr/infos-pratiques/services/pret-entre-bibliotheques/). Pick up your items in the PEB office (Lafayette library, 1st floor on the left).

Resources

Fields: Languages & Literature, History, Social Sciences, Arts & Art History, Geography, Tourism, Information & Communication Sciences, Philosophy, Psychology.

Books
The 4 social sciences & humanities libraries offer about 500,000 volumes, most of which are in Lafayette.
- in Gergovia, you will find undergraduate-level collections;
- in Lafayette, Carnot and Gergovia 2nd floor, you will find mostly research-level collections. Carnot is dedicated to foreign languages and literatures.

Journals
Journals can be borrowed. The ones most in demand (current year issues) are available in open shelves, while other issues are usually kept in storage and can be requested via the catalogue.

Theses
Theses in arts, languages and humanities submitted to Université Clermont-Auvergne (up to 2010) are available in paper format at the Lafayette library. More recent ones can be accessed online: www.theses.fr
Theses submitted to other French universities can be found on www.sudoc.fr and requested via an interlibrary loan.

Online Documentation
Online documentation can be accessed from any computer, provided you have E.N.T. identifiers. Otherwise, it is accessible from the library computers.

Documents in closed stacks
At Lafayette and Carnot, most of the collections are kept in closed stacks. You can find them through the library catalogue and request them via your online account. https://catalogue-bu.uca.fr/
Documents are made available within 15 about minutes, and stay available for 3 days.)
The library is actively engaged in the cultural life of the university, through exhibitions, conferences, readings...
