GERGOVIA LIBRARY

Literature and Humanities
2nd Floor

COLLECTIONS

Subjects : languages, literature, history & archaeology, social sciences, art & art history, geography, tourism, information & communication sciences, philosophy, psychology.

Books

The 4 Humanities libraries offer a total of 500.000 books :
- Most undergraduate-level collections are in Gergovia (ground floor).
- Lafayette, Carnot and Gergovia (2nd floor) offer mostly research-level collections.

Journals

Journals can be found in our online catalogue and can be borrowed. The ones most frequently used are displayed on open shelves (for the current year), but most of them are kept in bookstacks.

Theses

PhD theses in literature, languages, humanities and psychology submitted to Université Clermont Auvergne before 2010 are available at the library. Theses submitted since 2010 are only available online and can be found through our catalogue. Theses submitted to other French universities are referenced in the Sudoc catalogue (<http://www.sudoc.abes.fr/>).

Online resources

E-books, e-journals and databases can be accessed with your ENT login and password.

DIGITAL THESIS SUBMISSION

A digital copy of every thesis submitted to Université Clermont Auvergne must be deposited to the library. For more information: <https://bu.uca.fr/infos-pratiques/services/depot-de-these/>.

REQUESTING DOCUMENTS

Lafayette Library :

In order to prepare the future relocation of its collections, the library's reading room is permanently closed.

Documents may still be requested, borrowed and returned. On-site use of collections is permitted for non-loanable items only.

Carnot Library :

The reading room offers a selection of journals, reference books and exam preparation books. Books stored in bookstacks have to be requested, either on site or through our online catalogue. Books requested before 2:00 PM can be collected from 3:00 PM. Books requested after 2:00 PM will be available the next day from 9:00 AM.
